

PICTURE BOOK

Piggity-Wiggity Jiggity Jig Goes to Dad's Cafe

Diana Neild & Philip Webb

Scholastic New Zealand

ISBN 978-1-86943-910-1 pb RRP $18.99

Target age 3+

Piggity-Wiggity has been feeling a bit poorly, so Mum has a special treat in store for him ... a trip to Dad's café for lunch! But Piggity-Wiggity doesn't recognise all those fancy foods on the menu ... whatever will he eat?

Diana Neild can still remember the poem she wrote at seven years of age. It rhymed and had a bit of rhythm and from then on she was hooked. Over the years she has always written little rhyming things and poems for people's parties and weddings, but when she began writing Piggity-Wiggity she did it in her head, two lines at a time.

Philip Webb has been a freelance illustrator of children's books for over twenty years, mostly in the area of educational readers, chapter books and New Zealand short story compilations.

Great Activity and Event Ideas

1. How many words can you make out of Piggity-Wiggity Jiggity Jig?
2. Make a pineapple porcupine.
3. Piggity-Wiggity's dad's café was called the Ravenous Snout. What would you call your café?
4. What do you eat for breakfast?
5. Make a menu of your favourite things to eat.

New Zealand Post
CHILDREN'S BOOK AWARDS

2010
FINALISTS

PICTURE BOOK

Activity

Draw the most disgusting thing you can think of to eat!